Partnership work with Nene Tereza

London Centre for Social Impact has been working in partnership with Nene Tereza for the last 4 years. Our work with Nene Tereza entails provision of support, advice and guidance in effectively measuring outcomes of their services as well as in effectively involving its service users at all levels of the organisation from the management, service delivery, monitoring, evaluation and dissemination of learning.

Our partnership and collaboration has facilitated Nene Tereza to achieve the following:

- ❖ Improve their understanding of their service users needs.
- ❖ Improved sense of belonging in participation of their service users at all levels of the organisation
- ❖ Established services and activities that address needs identified
- ❖ Improved quality of services provided.
- ❖ Improved outcomes of services provided.
- ❖ Improved skills and knowledge of Nene Tereza, volunteers, staff and members of the management committee.
- ❖ Increased their influence in shaping local mainstream service delivery.
